TUITION FEE REFUND POLICY

Canada Royal Arts High School is a fully bonded institution which guarantees protection to students under the regulations of the Ministry of Education of BC. The following policy applies when a student withdraws from the school program after the tuition fee is paid. Conditions may apply. Please speak to us about details if you have any questions.

For All Students:

- One-half (1/2) of the tuition fee will be refunded if the student withdraws, for whatever reason, before the start of the first semester (date issued on the official Letter of Acceptance)
- One-third (1/3) of the tuition fee will be granted if the student withdraws, for whatever reason, within one week (seven calendar days) after the start of the first semester.
- No refund will be granted if the student withdraws after one week (seven calendar days) after the start of the first semester.
- Ancillary fees (registration, materials, activities, uniform, homestay placement, university planning, etc.) are non-refundable.
- No refund of the tuition fee will be granted if the student is expelled from the school for gross violation of the school code of conduct (e.g.: bullying, chronic absenteeism, drinking alcohol, taking drugs, bringing weapons to school), or provincial or Canadian laws.
- No refund of all fees will be granted if student is found to provide false information

International Students Only: The same refund policy stated above applies to international students. However, if the study permit application for international students is not approved by Immigration Canada, a full refund of all fees, except the registration fee will be granted upon written proof of such refusal.

- A student who has been approved for a new or extended study permit or visa using a school-issued letter of acceptance will not be issued a tuition refund.
- The school has different tuition fees for local and international students. If any international student becomes a permanent resident during study, the lower fees will take effect in the following school year.
